RECOVERY BOOT

Smart recovery for legs and feet

Treat your legs and feet to targeted air compression – anytime, anywhere. The Hâws Relax Recovery Boot combines advanced technology with user-friendly comfort in one compact product – perfect for recovery after exercise, long workdays, or simply a well-deserved break.

Choose between 3 intelligent massage modes – Sequential, Circulating or Full – and adjust the intensity with 5 pressure levels for a personalised and effective experience. The built-in auto-timer (10, 20 or 30 minutes) gives you control over your session and ensures optimal use.

Designed with 360° surrounding compression, targeted massage, and easy USB-C charging, it's ideal for use at home, in the office or while travelling. Lightweight, portable, and incredibly easy to use.

With the Hâws Recovery Boot, you get a combination of wellness, technology, and flexibility – refresh your legs and feet on your own terms.
